

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION ON MISSING PERSONS WESTERN BALKANS PROGRAM

OPEN CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR ICMP'S SMALL GRANTS FOR THE ASSOCIATIONS OF FAMILIES OF MISSING PERSONS AND CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS (CSO) FROM BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

WESTERN BALKANS (2025-2026)

ISSUE DATE: 30-OCT-25

CLOSING DATE: 30-NOV-25

I. INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION ON MISSING PERSONS (ICMP) SMALL GRANTS PROGRAM

The International Commission on Missing Persons (ICMP) invites associations of families of missing persons and Civil Society Organizations (CSO) to apply for its "Small Grants for the Associations of Families of Missing Persons and Civil Society Organizations from Bosnia and Herzegovina 2025".

ICMP is an independent, treaty-based international organization with more than 20 years of experience in 40 countries. It is the only international organization tasked exclusively to work on the issue of missing persons. It helps governments build rule-of-law institutions that successfully and impartially search for and identify missing persons, and it supports efforts to enable families of the missing to assert their rights.

II. ABOUT ICMP PROGRAM IN THE WESTERN BALKANS

In the Western Balkans ICMP has supported regional cooperation in the search for the missing; it has worked effectively to foster the development and cooperation of civil society organizations with one another and with governments and local authorities in the region. It has pioneered the application of state-of-the-art DNA and advanced database informatics to locate and identify large numbers of missing persons. To date, more than 70 percent of the estimated 40,000 persons reported missing at the end of the conflicts in the Western Balkans have been accounted for.

III. ICMP'S SMALL GRANTS PROGRAM

Through its Small Grants Program, ICMP provides financial support to associations of families of missing persons and civil society organizations that are registered in Bosnia and Herzegovina, to implement projects that integrate objectives, approaches, activities and content that contribute to:

- Promote and support the active, independent, meaningful and sustainable engagement and participation of families of missing persons in the process;
- Contribute to restoring justice and providing full redress to victims and survivors;
- Generate cooperation among survivor/victim groups, across sectarian, political, ethnic, religious or other lines and promote impartial and non-discriminatory approaches to the issue of the missing; and

- Advance accountability and transparency in the processes of locating missing persons by promoting dialogue and collaboration of survivor/victim groups with State authorities around the issue of the missing.

IV. AREAS OF SUPPORT

The projects and activities supported for the Small Grants, must be relevant to the role and challenges faced by families of the missing in Bosnia and Herzegovina and should target at least one of the following objectives:

- Awareness-raising activities and providing information to the public on the issue of missing persons;
- Advocacy and lobbying activities to ensure the full implementation of existing legislation and to secure families' rights;
- Activities aimed at ensuring the sustainability and domestic ownership of the process of accounting for missing persons in BiH, in line with the principles of the rule of law;
- Strengthening the legal foundations, organizational structures, management, or operational capacities of organizations;
- Pioneering innovative approaches and solutions to increase the efficacy of the missing persons process in BiH.

Projects that as a primary objective entail the processing of personal data related to missing persons or their relatives, or projects focused solely on providing psychosocial assistance to families of the missing are not eligible for funding through this Call.

Eligible costs: to ensure that the organizations implement the activities and reach the outcomes mentioned above, the following costs are allowed:

Programmatic Costs	Any expense is associated with a specific program, project or activity that is not part of the recurrent costs of the organization, for example: consultants, transportation of participant, meals, accommodation, rental venue, sound system, services and printing, materials for events.
Organization Costs	Any expense to cover the recurrent costs associated with the existence of the grantees as an organization or association, including remuneration, social security or consultants' office expenses, equipment, materials, travel expenses for project staff (up to 30 percent of the total amount of the grant).
